

South Central Retired Teachers Association:

Submitted by: Deloris Zimmerman

The South Central Retired Teachers Association (SCRTA) had its last meeting of the year on October 19, 2009, at the Prairie Winds Restaurant in Wishek. Our Unit meets during the months for May through October.

A series of programs were scheduled for our members this year: Marlowe Kro, AARP Representative, gave a presentation on Health Care Reform; Susan Gilbert, Ashley, gave a presentation on the impact of a handicapped child on the family; Beth Dewald, a Representative of the Buffalo Valley Red Cross Chapter, discussed the Red Cross services that were available for our area and Cindy Ketterling, Wishek, County Extension Agent for NDSU gave us information on "Nourishing the Brain".

Jean Schnabel, Ashley, a member of the SCRTA, received the Silver Apple Award for our Unit at the NDRTA Convention in Dickinson this year.

Our Unit observed the 9/11 Terrorist Attack by participating in the "Create the Good" Project.

Members/spouses/friends of our SCRTA held its Annual Dinner November 9, 2009, at the Prairie Winds Restaurant in Wishek.
